Position Title: Permitting and Reclamation Intern
Company Division: Permitting Department
Location: Jasper, AL
Degree Preference: Civil, Environmental or Agricultural Engineering
Degree Status: Junior or Senior

Company Information:
Drummond Company is a privately held natural resource, mining, and real estate development company with revenues exceeding $1 Billion. Drummond operates coal mines in Alabama and Colombia, South America and manages real-estate operations in Florida, California, and Alabama. We have a strong financial balance sheet and are growing rapidly in international scale.

Job Description

Duties the permitting and reclamation interns may be expected to perform include:

- Collecting pond water samples for NPDES monitoring sites.
- Collecting ground water samples from monitoring wells
- Collecting stream water samples and assist in stream gauging at samples sites
- Logging exploration core at drill sites
- Assisting with pond removal plans at closed mine sites
- Filing permit documents received from regulatory agencies and permit information generated by permitting department
- Performing survey work with the land surveying crew
- Assisting reclamation field crew on special projects

How to Apply:
Recruiter E-Mail: bblackburn@drummondco.com
Recruiter Fax: 205-384-2146

Drummond Company, Inc. is an equal opportunity employer.